MOBILE HARBOR CRANE (CONTINUED)
(i) Cranes assigned to users are under the users' supervision, direction and control. A user shall at all times relieve, indemnify, protect and hold harmless the Port of San Diego, its officers, agents, representatives and employees from any and all judgments, claims and legal actions, including attorneys' fees and all other expenses incurred, as a result of a death of or injury to persons, damage to property or civil fines and penalties that may arise in whole or in part, to the extent of user's negligence in the use of or operation of a crane, whether by user, its officers, agents or employees, or by any person or persons acting with the express or implied knowledge and consent of user. A user shall also indemnify the Port of San Diego and pay for all damages or loss suffered by the Port of San Diego to the extent of user's negligence, including but not limited to, damage to or destruction of Port of San Diego property, including the crane itself, and for loss of revenue caused by or arising out of such damage or destruction. (j) All persons desiring to use a crane, as far in advance of the date of requested use as possible, shall make application to the Executive Director specifying the date and time of proposed use, nature and quantity of cargo to be handled, the estimated length of use and nature of use. Users shall be assigned use of a crane in order of their applications. Such assignments shall be subject to modification as required to accommodate preferential and secondary crane assignees. Such assignments may also be modified if a vessel is not actually available at the berth or if cargo is not actually available on the wharf premises. User shall conduct its operations expeditiously and shall cease use and return the crane to the control of the Port of San Diego without delay upon conclusion of authorized use thereof or sooner when the crane is required by a preferential or secondary crane assignee. The Executive Director shall have the right to order the user to cease operation of a crane immediately whenever, in his opinion, the user is not using said crane in accordance with the terms of the assignment, or whenever such cessation is necessary for the best interest of the Port District. (k) The Executive Director may refuse to assign a crane for purposes of handling any merchandise which, in his opinion, cannot be handled by the crane without substantial risk to any person or property, including the crane. (l) The charge for the use of mobile harbor cranes shall be for a minimum of four (4) hours of use. After the first (1st) hour, the charge shall be calculated in fifteen (15) minute increments or fraction thereof. The charge shall include the cost of fuel or power. The charge shall apply from the time specified in the assignment or when operations begin, whichever occurs first, and shall continue until the crane is released to the Port of San Diego. If the crane is unavailable for use at the time specified in the assignment for reasons beyond the control of the user, charges will be computed from the time actual use begins. A separate hourly charge shall be assessed for normal repair and maintenance of cranes performed by the Port of San Diego. (m) The use of a crane shall constitute acceptance and acknowledgement by the user of all the conditions and restrictions contained in this Item No. 0738.	0738

	Item No.
INTENT In accordance with the San Diego Unified Port District Act (California Harbors and Navigation Code, Appendix 1), the Board of Port Commissioners of the San Diego Unified Port District regulates vessels within San Diego Bay, including the establishment of pilotage charges for the Port of San Diego. The charges and conditions upon which piloting services are provided are contained herein. Authorized Pilots are to provide piloting services in an independent capacity and not as officers, employees, agents or independent contractors of the San Diego Unified Port District.	0785
PILOTS (a) The San Diego Unified Port District through the Board of Port Commissioners, has designated Authorized Pilots to perform piloting services to vessels entering, leaving or shifting within the Port of San Diego. Any vessel entering, leaving, or shifting within the Port of San Diego may, but is not required to, request the services of and be piloted by an Authorized Pilot. Such piloting services are to be voluntarily requested and voluntarily rendered in accordance with the terms set forth in this Tariff. (b) Upon boarding a vessel in response to the request of its master, owner or agent, it shall be the duty of each pilot to place his/her knowledge of San Diego Bay at the disposal of the vessel's master. (c) The safe navigation of the vessel, including piloting, is at all times the paramount duty of its master, and the presence of a pilot on the bridge shall in no way relieve the master of his/her duties. The master remains at all times in full command of the vessel; shall continue to navigate and shall take bearings and soundings, check compass courses, make radar observations, and take all actions necessary to safeguard the vessel under his/her command. In that regard, it shall be the duty of the vessel and its master: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>(1) To have posted, and all times properly instructed, efficient and competent lookouts, each with no other duty to perform, and each with efficient means of rapid communication with the bridge.</li> <li>(2) To immediately inform the pilot of all reports by lookout.</li> <li>(3) On radar-equipped vessels, to have the radar functioning and manned by a competent observer under instructions to keep the mater and the pilot constantly and currently informed of observed targets.</li> <li>(4) To arrange for and provide adequate tug assistance, and to arrange for and have available adequate vessel's lines to assist in tying the tug or tugs.</li> <li>(5) For the master to remain on the bridge at all times and to accompany the pilot in his/her duties on and about the bridge.</li> <li>(6) To provide and supervise competent vessel's personnel.</li> </ol>	0790

PILOTAGE RATES AND CHARGES (CONTINUED FROM PAGE 63) * SPECIAL NOTE: BARGES: For the purpose of assessing pilotage charges for barges, the sum of the over length plus the breadth will be used. When the barge and tug or towboat are combined as an integrated unit, pilotage charges shall be assessed on the overall length and gross tonnage of the combined unit. EXCEPTION 1: Three-fourths (3/4) of the entering or leaving charge shall be assessed when the vessel subject to the payment of pilotage is not piloted by an Authorized Pilot upon entering, leaving, or shifting. NOTE: Entering or leaving vessels that make an intermediary stop at the "B" Street Pier will not be subject to an additional intra-harbor shifting charge unless an Authorized Pilot is employed. EXCEPTION 2: No intra-harbor shifting charge shall be assessed when entering vessels anchor because of inclement weather or other causes beyond the control of such vessels, if such vessels proceed thence to berth immediately after such cause of delay ceases to exist. EXCEPTION 3: Commercial passenger vessels which have completed a minimum of one-hundred seventy (170) trips from the Port of San Diego during a six (6) month operating period and whose published schedule calls for not less than three-hundred thirty (330) trips during any twelve (12) month period shall be assessed a pilotage charge at four-fifths (4/5) of these pilotage charges while employing an Authorized Pilot. For the purposes of this exception, a commercial passenger vessel shall be defined as: A cruise ship which is homeported at the Port of San Diego; departs, calls at a foreign port and returns to the Port of San Diego within a twenty-four (24) hour period; and further offers onboard entertainment and meal service on a per trip basis. EXCEPTION 4: (a) Vessels moved without the use of their own propulsion and/or steering systems shall be assessed a pilotage fee of twice the normal entering or leaving charge based on overall length of the vessel. Such vessels shall not be assessed a per gross tonnage charge in addition to the charge assessed on the overall length of the vessel. (b) Vessels entering or leaving the Port of San Diego under flat tow when the tow is in charge of the bona fide master of the tugboat and such master holds a federal pilot's license for the Port of San Diego. NOTE: Vessels shifting between immediate adjacent berths or immediate adjacent locations where lines of the vessel are employed for such shifting shall be charged the normal intra-harbor rate one-hundredths of one percent (0.06%) of said charges per day for each day from a date thirty (30) days after they are incurred until the charges have been paid. (c) Pilotage charges, as set forth in this Item No. 0800, are due and payable as they are incurred to the Authorized Pilots. All charges that remain due and unpaid for a period of thirty (30) days after incurrence shall be subject to a delinquency payment, payable to the pilots, equal to six one-hundredths of one percent (.06%) of said charges per day for each day from a date thirty (30) days after they are incurred until the charges have been paid.	0800 (C), (A)
